

Proactive Capacity Management Program

Do you have business needs or projects on the horizon that could drive increased storage capacity needs? Are you considering the implementation of a tiered storage strategy, or local data replication for increased application availability and reduced backup windows? Are you looking for increased application performance and considering adding high-speed hard disk drives into your array? Do you own an HP StorageWorks EVA?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, this offer is for you!

EVA hard drives—buy 4, get 6 free

For a limited time, you can buy four EVA add-on hard disk drives and get six for free. Take advantage of this great offer to expand the capacity of your existing arrays and be prepared to meet your upcoming business and IT needs.

This offer is available for new EVA add-on hard disk drives and Remarketed add-on hard disk drives.

In addition, EVA drive shelves are available through this promotion. Other optional products and services are available at a promotional discount when purchased together with eligible EVA add-on HDDs.

This effort to continually find ways to reduce waste is strategic to HP's overall corporate initiative to protect our environment. The (10) HDD Bulk Pack saves on cardboard and packing materials, weight and freight. Please note this new green initiative is for the EVAx400 array drives only.

This program is available through HP's direct sales force and HP channel partners. Contact your HP sales representative or channel partner to take advantage of this offer right away!

Terms and conditions

This promotional offer is valid through January 31, 2012. You may not mix and match within the minimum required purchase quantity of ten for the EVA add-on hard drives.

This promotion discount is only available on the eligible SKUs listed on the next two pages. Promotion discounts cannot be combined with HP special pricing or with any other promotional offers. Customer Purchase Agreement discounts and other discounts such as GEM, WSCA, etc. are not eligible for this promotion and may not be combined with this promotion.

This offer is available while supplies last.

* HP installation services are required with the purchase of new EVA drive shelves.

HP reserves the right to alter, amend or cancel this promotion at any time without notice. HP reserves the right to interpret the rules of this promotion, and all decisions made by HP are final. The promotion is valid in Canada only. All other terms of the Customer Purchase Agreement and related documents apply.

Take advantage of this great HP Program. Fill up your existing HP storage array by adding additional disks at a greatly reduced price!
